TO BE

PRAISED FOR

PROPHET

Vincent Selvakumaar

THE EDITOR'S NOTE

In the midst of various persecutions during the first century, the Lord had formed the institution of the Church, an assembly in the Acts of the Apostles.

The Bible depicts the Church under various banners and one of them is 'the Bride'. This term of the Church is the most common and is widely used. It is an important one also because the Lord is going to return to the earth to take His Bride. Therefore, it is my humble request that each and every Christian must pray for the Church and its ministers.

May the Lord bless you and your Church!

You Loving Brother,

Vincent Selvakumaar

That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

Matthew 18:19

FOR WHERE TWO OR THREE ARE GATHERED TOGETHER IN MY NAME, THERE AM I IN THE MIDST OF THEM.
Matthew 18:20

WHY MUST WE PRAY?

The Church:

The institution of the Church is a very important concept in the Bible; and to join the right Church is a crucial part of a believer's life for it is written '...the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved (Acts 2:47).' However, the nature and works of the Church have changed over the past of 2,000 years.

The Bible depicts that a true and faithful Church will be holy and zealous for the Lord; and will fulfil His will on this earth. It is written; And He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ: (Eph. 4: 11 - 13)

These verses talk about the ministries which the Lord has established in His Church and the purpose behind this institution. It clearly speaks about the desire and the will of God towards the Church.

Apart from these five main ministries, there are various other ministries such as: the ministry of stewardship, the ministry of supervision, the ministry of assistance, the ministry of hospitality etc. All these ministries are services which are ordained for the children of God in the Church.

The major difference between the five-fold ministries and other ministries in the Church is; a person must be specially called by God to stand in the office of the five-fold ministry. The Lord ordains these offices and neither a Church nor an organization or a human being can form this. While on the other hand, anyone can be involved in the other works of the ministry. Hence, it is important for each and every Christian to know his role in the Church.

Finally, the above verses clearly say that the work (the ministers) in the Church is to perfect the saints (believers), for the work of the ministry and for the edification of the body of Christ i.e. this should be the main aim of each and every Church which the Lord has instituted on the earth, and its ministers. And the Church has to do this till we all are united in faith, have the complete knowledge of the Son of Man, and become a perfect spiritual man just like the Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us therefore behold the vision of the Church in the coming days and look unto the Lord, so that His will and purposes are fulfilled in the Churches and in the lives of Christians and believers.

PRAY FOR INDIA

THEN SHALL YE CALL UPON ME, AND YE SHALL GO AND PRAY UNTO ME, AND I WILL HEARKEN UNTO YOU.
JEREMIAH 29:12

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 2 Chronicles 7:14

»»» Prayer Points:

1. ...the Lord also spoke saying “you must pray for the Bible; because, alteration in the Bible shall take place all over the world. The deceitful doctrines of Satan, a corrupted word and a false Bible, which deny the very truth, shall fill all the nations. Is this not the days of famine that shall result in the unavailability of my scripture? If you put on the burden and start to pray from now onwards, then I will choose some of my people and will strengthen their hands and I will open new doors and cause my words to penetrate among the people so that it will not be destroyed. (Nalumavadi, 19.12.2007)

Ephesians 6:18

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

2. ...When I waited in the presence of God to understand the meaning of the vision, the Lord spoke to me saying “the black color locusts which you saw that flew on the green pastures and meadows are the wicked spirits and their deceptive teachings. These wicked spirits have received authority to entice the elect and to shatter the flock with wicked teachings and to blind the eyes of the servants, who guard the flock through wages of unrighteousness. These are the men that follow the wicked spirits which are sent to turn the faith of the people from their hearts in following the only begotten Son of God. (Revealed on: 19.10.2013)

3. Thus said the Lord “Evil days shall engulf the world so as to swiftly sweep away lives. It shall come through wind and rain. It shall come through snow and through fire. It shall come through flood. It shall come through smoke...My prophets are blind; My shepherds are gluttons; and the watcher whom I rose up is a lover of sleep. And the watchman who stands on the walls is a weak man. My servant is a lover of money; In order to multiply their wealth, they have gathered together and trade My words in the market places and in the valleys. They gather the people and bargain My power. They manifest their tears unto the people and gather its rewards. Their barns are overflowing. There is none who observe My works and none who cares about it. Is this not that grieves Me?” (Revealed on: 24.08.2012)

PRAYER POINTS

1. SPIRIT OF LUST: Behold, I am seeing a women... and she ought to be bound. Is she not the wicked spirit that spoiled the hearts of many people and is this not the one that provokes the youth to fall into sinfulness by filling their hearts with lustful and indecent passions and make them to walk terming it as civilization and cause them to indulge in adultery and fornication. She ought to be hurled from her position and stature. Those who can confront her ought to rise up and it is for this reason that I have called many of you and preparing you as a soldier who can hurl her down. (Revealed on: November 2013, Bangalore)

2. SPIRITS OF CARELESSNESS: Behold, these are the wicked spirits that hindered My servants from doing their ministerial service and filled the hearts of multitude of believers with carelessness and callousness, and brought unwanted things into my congregation and made the congregation not to realize it's responsibility by shutting their eyes and making them blind. ...Their backsliding comes in the form of civilization and they are transforming their worship into a physical form of approach and terming it as civilization. Thus says the Lord 'it is also backsliding.' Wicked deeds from the Churches and congregation ought to be chased away. Who can perform this? ...Power shall manifest with the knees and with the tears that you shall shed. This will sanctify the Churches. (Revealed on: November 2013, Bangalore)

Pray for the CHURCHES

3. PRAY FOR THE CHURCHES: ...Behold the group which is going to rob My flock is swiftly plotting plans. Before they begin their race, 'My people, Oh My people... Didn't I warn you that it would be better if your race begins?' ...The one who prays, let him begin his race ahead. The one who stands in the gap, let him begin his race ahead. Let the one who laments for his nation race ahead. And let the one who assumes responsibility race ahead. 'Protect your land! Protect your boundaries! Protect your people!' The Lord of Hosts, I am beside you. I am with you in order to hear your prayers. 'Your heart was wearied calling unto Me. You didn't call onto Me. Neither did you wait for the salvation which is from My hands, nor did you look forward for it. Hence the peril which shall befall this nation is plenty' says the Lord. It would be better if you repent and turn away from your carelessness... Oh, careless and wicked one; your Ministerial office will be withdrawn from you, your garment will be removed from you, and then won't you run astray like the heathen?' Rise up! Rise up! says the Lord. Today is the day of grace, today is the day of salvation. (Revealed on: February 2015, Mysore)

HEAR ME WHEN I CALL, O GOD OF MY RIGHTEOUSNESS: THOU HAST ENLARGED ME WHEN I WAS IN DISTRESS; HAVE MERCY UPON ME, AND HEAR MY PRAYER. PSALM 4:1

Pray for our SERVANTS OF GOD

 PROPHET

VINCENT SELVAKUMAAR

1. Prophet Vincent Selvakumaar' calling is almost akin to the Old Testament Prophets, who had a close walk with the Lord: his main ministry is to wait at the feet of the Lord and receive the revelations from God. Hence, pray that the Lord should protect him and guide him at every moment, to remain in His presence and fulfill his ministerial calling.

2. Pray that the Lord must protect His Servant from all evils and dangers: to stand in the office of a Prophet is a calling which the enemy abhors. Therefore, he will do anything to destroy the life of a Prophet or to tarnish their reputation. Pray that the Lord must protect Prophet Vincent Selvakumaar at all times so that the enemy cannot accomplish his craftiness.

Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus

1. Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus is one of the most humble Servant of God, which the world has ever seen and he has been in the Lord's ministry over 43 years: pray that the Lord must help him and guide him even in the coming days to achieve much more greater feats for the kingdom of God and to gather a greater harvest into the Lord's barn.

2. His vision for the Revival has become his calling over the years and the Lord has promised a great Revival through his ministry. Hence pray that the Lord must protect Bro. Mohan C. Lazarus and his ministry from all the wiles of the devil and that the plans, wills and promises of God over him and his ministry be fulfilled.

Evangel OTT

1. Prayer that the Lord should open the hearts of the believers, churches, ministries and servants of God that they may partake in the newly launched OTT platform and spread the prophetic messages, end time teachings and general sermons.

2. Pray that the enemy should not obstruct or hinder in the smooth functioning of the services aired in the OTT. Pray that the Lord should bless the technicians and engineers, who are labouring in the OTT with necessary knowledge, skill and spiritual guidance to oversee the content and that the viewers /subscribers may draw closer to God after listening and watching the messages.

3. Pray very fervently that the OTT should draw a great multitude of people, from all over the world and that they may discern the times and seasons and the challenges world is facing and that they may benefit from the messages and teachings aired and prepare themselves to meet the Lord. Also pray that new countries may hear about the OTT channel and use them for the benefit of wining new souls.

4. Pray fervently for the protection of the Lord to rest upon all the equipment, gadgets, software, and other cloud-based organizations that help the OTT to function smoothly. During the end times, there are possibilities that the churches may come under strict vigil and they could be asked to shut down citing several reasons. Under such a scenario, the OTT platform will be the only medium available. Hence pray for the safety, security and smooth functioning of the OTT.

VOICE OF JESUS MEDIA

ESTABLISHED IN BANGALORE, KARNATAKA.

The volunteer of this ministry were personally touched by the sermons of Prophet Vincent Selvakumar and were immediately grieved that these precious words of God are hindered and limited. This godly sorrow was transformed into a burning desire; a desire to carry forth the word of God to a larger audience and to make other people experience the presence and anointing which they had encountered. Thus, the ministry was begotten through this burning desire and with the guidance from God.

The ministry has conducted various gatherings, conferences and camp meetings over the years and the Lord had led the team to also focus on the digital platforms simultaneously. Praying Hyde

This is the story of a humble man—the son of a devout Presbyterian pastor from Illinois, by the name of John Nelson Hyde. It all began when John's older brother, Edmund, heard his father fervently pray that God would send workers into the harvest. To that end, Edmund enrolled in the seminary, planning to be one of those harvesters. But it wasn't long before he became ill, and his dream was cut short by his death. It was then that his brother, John, then caught the vision and studied to go to the mission field in Punjab, India. During that time, there were nearly a million unbelievers in an area served by only five missionaries. His efforts required incredible patience because it was a painstakingly slow transition. After his first year on the field, he penned the following letter to his seminary. Yesterday, eight low-caste persons were baptized at one of the villages. It seems a work of God in which man, even as an instrument, was used in a very small degree. Pray for us. I learn to speak the language very, very slowly: can only talk a little in public or in conversation." Hyde was partially deaf, which no doubt added to his struggle to master the complex native languages. Though mission authorities tried to encourage him, they were frustrated when he spent more time studying his Bible than he did in language study. And rather than displaying the outgoing personality of a missionary, he seemed much more withdrawn and intensely private; not a good fit for a traditional mission worker. Over time, he did become somewhat fluent in the local language, but he never lost his passion for God's Word. Faced with natives' unveiled persecution and only a rare convert, he invited other missionaries to join him to intercede for a spiritual breakthrough in India. In fact, in 1899, his call to pray was so intense that he spent whole nights on his face before God. He wrote the following in a letter to his college: Have felt led to pray for others this winter as never before. I never before knew what it was to work all day and then pray all night before God for another... In college or at parties at home, I used to keep such hours for myself, or pleasure, and can I not do as much for God and souls? In 1904, a group made up of Indian converts and American missionaries led by John Hyde, united at Sialkot, (now known as Pakistan), for the first annual convention of the Punjab Prayer Union. Participants set aside a half-hour each day to pray for revival, and the result was a stunning anointing that fell upon them all. Each year thereafter the group gathered to fast and fervently pray for the lost. Hyde supervised the prayer sessions, and those involved were astonished at his vision, discernment and incredible burden for souls. Then in 1908, Hyde was inspired to pray in the impossible—for the salvation of at least one convert, each day in India. And God answered with an enthusiastic yes—and by the end of the first year, 365 converts had been added to the kingdom. Then he began to pray for two souls a day, and as a result 800 responded to the gospel that year, and yet he wasn't

If we are willing to put ourselves into God's hands, then God is willing to use us. But there are two conditions: Obedience and purity.

“We must exercise the greatest care to be utterly obedient to Him who sees all the battlefield all the time. It is only He who can put each man in the place where his life can count for the most.”

satisfied—he still wanted more. When the 1910 convention gathered, those nearby were dumbfounded by Hyde’s faith and the way he prayed, demanding, “Give me souls, God, or I die!” During that session, he shared his latest vision, that he was again doubling his goal—four souls a day and would accept no less. By then he had acquired the name “Praying Hyde,” and revivals in major Indian metro areas sought to engage his prayer efforts. In fact, there was such a tremendous weight on his spirit when the numbers didn’t add up, that he couldn’t eat or sleep until he had prayed through, and felt God move in response. As a result, the numbers continued to multiply exponentially. At one point when he was forty-five of age, his friends convinced him to consult a Calcutta physician about his quickly declining health. Travailing for years had clearly cost him dearly, but they were shocked when the doctor diagnosed him with a malignant brain tumor, which was ultimately responsible for his death. Yet, Hyde lived for almost two more years, and during that time, he saw a wave of revival sweep India and the Punjab, to which no other could compare. When it became clear that he was going to die, he returned to his home in Carthage, Illinois, where, just before he left for heaven, he said, “Shout the victory of Jesus Christ.” Before his death, he wrote the following: On the day of prayer, God gave me a new experience. I seemed to be away above our conflict here in the Punjab and I saw God’s great battle in all India, and then away out beyond in China, Japan, and Africa. I saw how we had been thinking in narrow circles of our own countries and in our own denominations, and how God was now rapidly joining force to force and line to line, and all was beginning to be one great struggle. That, to me, means the great triumph of Christ. We must exercise the greatest care to be utterly obedient to Him who sees all the battlefield all the time. It is only He who can put each man in the place where his life can count for the most. In the end, he spent countless dark nights, praying and weeping on the cold, bare floor, not sleeping or eating, interceding for souls, which came first, one a day, then two a day, until four and then eight souls were saved each day and baptized into the kingdom. The burden to pray was so heavy that it could be felt by those who were nearby, who were similarly affected. Hyde’s bed was rarely slept in, because he spent most nights groaning for souls on the floor, and as a result, the number of converts all over India grew by leaps and bounds. After his death, the medical examiner was stunned to discover that his heart was no longer located to the left of midline, but was now located on the right, probably after lying on the hard, cold floor for so many years. Some of his friends believed that he had prayed so hard that his heart had actually changed location! In the end, revival doesn’t come because we talk about it, or are interested in it. It comes from a burning desire to see it happen and do whatever it takes to make it so. Let’s ask ourselves this question: “Do I burn for the salvation of the lost—burn for revival?” If no, why not? “Give me souls, oh God, or I die!” —John Hyde, 1910, Sialkot Convention

“Give me souls, oh God, or I die!”

“SELF MUST BE CRUCIFIED, DEAD AND BURIED WITH CHRIST, IF NOT ‘BURIED’ THE STENCH OF THE OLD MAN WILL FRIGHTEN SOULS AWAY, THEN THE NEW MAN WILL BE REVIVED, RAISED AND SEATED —THE CORRESPONDING STEPS UPWARD WHICH GOD PERMITS US TO TAKE. THEN INDEED CHRIST IS LIFTED UP IN OUR LIVES AND HE CANNOT FAIL TO ATTRACT SOULS TO HIMSELF. ALL THIS IS THE RESULT OF A CLOSE UNION AND COMMUNION, THAT IS ‘FELLOWSHIP’ WITH HIM IN HIS SUFFERINGS!”
