The Prophetic words uttered by God

"A terrible evil shall arise in the nation against the children and the infants, so as to ruin them and ravage their lives. Children and infants will be transformed like goods of merchandise. The merchandise of trade wrought out targeting the children will thrive and flourish in the nation. Many children will be kidnapped and will be sold like souvenir and instruments of lust. The trade which is carried out against them, will receive great encouragement clandestinely. When its' veil is unmasked, you will see some prominent personalities, whom you will not be able to believe, and celebrities behind it.

Further, you will also see some leaders, who enjoy political influence, and well-established businessmen, and some religious merchants, working behind this conspiracy. They will forcefully enter into public places, schools, commercial complexes and plunder the children. Furthermore, you will also see an increase in such activities in the nation, wherein they will barge into the houses and kidnap the children and will befriend and entice them. Moreover, a snare would be laid so as to entrap the children through the internet and social media networking sites. Wicked people, who shall seduce the children through heart-appealing photos and images, addictive games and expensive gifts, will greatly increase, and they will plunder and make them as goods of merchandise. In the coming days you will see their deeds getting aggressively multiplied. Some mala-fide wicked men will appear in the medical field and target the children and will let loose great harm against the children. False men will arise in the medical field, who will arouse the feelings in the emotions of the children and

The words uttered by God for the # Children..

These are the words uttered by God for the children:

This handbook has been published so that you may learn about the words, which the Lord has forewarned during this year, concerning the perils that shall fall upon the children and pray for their safety. Read intently and understand the prophetic words of God and pray for them.

These prophetic words were revealed by the Lord to Bro. Vincent Selva Kumar on 02.01.2019.

ravage them for their organs and kill them for trading activities.

Also, a malefic group will swiftly arise in the nation, who, will plunder the children, through fellow children and the aged ones. Hundreds and thousands of children will get disappeared in the nation. This evil will quickly spread in religious institutions, temples, and it will thrive during the night and in day light. Through them, deaths will be staged among the babies and sexual abuse among the children will increase.

Such kind of an illicit trade yields large returns and enables the people to become extremely wealthy in a very short period. It is for this reason that many people will privily involve themselves for such an act. Furthermore, these wicked men will lay in wait around the schools, targeting the girls and boys.

The feet of these wicked men will wander so as to train the children to the stupor and captivate in such addictions and draw towards them. You will see sexual abuse and violent physical atrocities being meted out on a large scale, not only to the girls but also against the boys in the nation. This is nothing but a terrible cruelty let loose by Satan against the children. Since the hand of the Lord is going to visit the children and to accomplish great and mighty deeds in the forthcoming revival, Satan is anticipating to unleash extreme conspiracy of wickedness among the children before in hand" says the Lord.
